

In the space below, draw, write a poem or short story, paint or attach a photo of what safety looks like to you and incorporate the theme: "Protecting Children is Everyone's Business."

Artwork Title: _____
Artist Name: _____
Artist Age: _____ Artist Community: _____

QUEENSLAND
CHILD PROTECTION WEEK

Protecting children is EVERYBODY'S BUSINESS

ARTWORK CONSENT & REGISTRATION FORM

To celebrate National Child Protection Week 2020, Mura Kosker Sorority is inviting artists & authors of all ages within the Torres Strait region to submit their artwork or presentation depicting the annual theme: "Protecting Children is Everyone's Business" for a chance to have your artwork produced in the 2021 Mura Kosker Community Calendar.

Entries Close: 5pm Friday, 25th September 2020.

Name: _____

Phone: _____

Address: _____

Email: _____

I have read the rules for this consent. This is my original artwork. I understand that a picture of my work will become the property of Mura Kosker Sorority Incorporated and give my permission for my artwork to be reproduced and exhibited in any legal and ethical form that promotes Children's Safety Campaigns developed by Mura Kosker Sorority Incorporated.

Artist Signature: _____ Date: _____

Signature of Parent/Guardian (for artists under 18yrs): _____ Date: _____